Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance—Grant of—to Government Car Chauffeurs.

PREAMBLE :—

Under Rule 527 (aa) of the Karnataka Civil Services Rules a Government servant who is provided with and avails himself of means of locomotion at the expense of Government or local or other Funds and does not pay the expenses of its use or propulsion may draw an allowance for incidental expenses for the journey as admissible under Rule 471 of the said Rules based on the distance covered by road by the direct route and restricted to one daily allowance for every twenty-four hours of journey or part thereof and he may draw daily allowance in addition, for halt at the rate admissible under Rule 514 of the said Rules provided he does not return to his Head quarters on the same day. If he returns to his Head quarters on the same day he is entitled to draw daily allowance according to the provisions contained in clause (a) of the said Rule Note 2 below Rule 527 of the said Rules lays down that Government Motor Car Chauffeurs are entitled to only Daily Allowance for road journeys in motor cars.

The Karnataka Motor Drivers' Central Association has been urging Government for deletion of this Note so as to enable Government Motor Car Chauffeurs to claim the travelling allowance on par with other Government servants, their claims being regulated under the provision of Rule 527 (a) and (aa). Similar facilities are available to Government Car Drivers in Maharashtra, etc.

ORDER No. FD 43 SRS 73 (part), BANGALORE, DATED THE 30TH OCTOBER 1974.

After examining carefully all aspects of the case Government are now pleased to direct that the Government Motor Car Chauffeurs should be treated on par with other Government servants in respect of grant of Travelling Allowance and they be granted Travelling Allowance as per clause (a) of Rule 527 of the Karnataka Civil Services Rules if they return to Head quarters on the same day and as per clause (aa) of the said Rule if they do not return to their Head quarters on the same day.

Necessary amendment to the said Rules will be issued separately.

These orders will be effective from the date of the Government order and are applicable to cases pending on that date. Past cases regulated otherwise than in accordance with these orders should not be reopened.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,

M. A. SRINIVASAN,
Under Secretary to Government,
